DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Araki et al., Chemical Abstracts, Vol. 119, no. 15, page 957, abstract no. 160483p (1993). The abstract discloses tricarbonylchromium(0) and –molybdenum(0) complexes of 1,3-diphenyltetrazolium-5-cyclopentadienide. See formulas V and VI.

Double Patenting

4. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

5. Claims 2-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 2-7 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,437,161 B1. Claims 2-7 are identical in scope compared to claims claims 2-7 of the '161 B1 patent even though the wording between the claims is slightly different. This is a double patenting rejection.

6. Claims 8-14 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 8-14 of copending Application No. 10/166,130. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 8-12 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 8, 10 and 12 of copending Application No. 10/166,140. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the immobilization of the complex by using an organic or inorganic support is well known in the catalyst art. The immobilization of precursor metal complexes with a support imparts stability to the catalyst system used for the polymerization of olefins. The instant claim 8 differs from claim 8 of application No. 10/166,140 in the use of a support to immobilize the metal complex. Further, immobilization of metal complexes used as catalyst precursor for the polymerization of olefins is well known in the art and is considered to be within the purview of expertise of one skilled in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to immobilize the claimed instant complex to arrive to the complex of application No. 10/049,455 to impart better stability to the catalyst system used in olefin polymerizations.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
